Create your personal creative logo. Your logo should consist of text and primitive objects. You should combine objects to make more complex shapes. Focus on the overall composition and view angle. Don't worry about surface properties, they will be handled later in the semester, concentrate on the modeling. Also, develop your model in at least 5 thumbnail sketches, experimenting with composition and design.

Both your sketches and scene files will be graded.